Call Made For Stoves To Be Given Lomita Needy Families

LOMITA.—Stoves, especially wood stoves, are the need of the Lomita Community Relief. If they are cook stoves so much the better. Plenty of wood can be secured, says George Key, if the Relief can get stoves. Oil lamps could also be used as some of the families in need are unable to pay light and gas bills. But heat is the need of these families. This cold weather so if you have stoves away a stove you don't need, please let Mr. Key or some of his committee know.

At an executive meeting Monday night, about half of the district workers responded with most gratifying reports. Food and clothing have been donated but more is needed. The Relief is handling only emergency cases. Cases entitled to county and state aid are being referred to the Inglewood Welfare office.

Mrs. Bertha Wilcox resigned as Distribution chairman. The removal of the justice court to Torrance, December 15, will make it impossible for her to be in Lomita to attend to that work, but she will continue as vice president. Mrs. Marian Welch was appointed chairman of distribution in her place. So far the Relief has been able to supply the emergency cases reported with food.

DAUGHTER ARRIVES
 Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holloman, 1515 Cedar street, announce the arrival of a baby daughter, Wanda Jo, born November 18. They have three other children, all boys. The Hollomans have lived in Torrance for the past five years, coming here from Keata, Okla.

Little log cabins, snow scenes and primitive figures presented a picture of the first Thanksgiving. Candy pumpkins, sheaves of wheat, carried out the idea in favors and place cards and an enormous birthday cake with 10 candles completed the centerpiece. Mrs. Earl Connor, noble grand, presided.
